(HIMSELF)

SUBTLE—watch the papers—figure up the arrests made—I bet you will find two police men on the force who will try hard to get their names in the paper many times for arrests they make so that they will make a good impression upon the INCOMING POLICE COMMISSIONERS, who will be picked, we understand, to protect some of those who are good political workers. DEEP STUFF.

ONE FELLOW now on the police force at Muscatine, is accused of saying "I will be on the force long after others are WALKING THE STREETS." Isn't it fine to have such a STAND-IN? Thompson did that in Chicago but Cermak is NOW MAYOR—and it was an UNEXPECTED CHANGE. His policemen earned his DOWNFALL. A good police commission, without FEES, is needed.

DR. SPILLMAN of Ottumwa was criticized by one—now I PRAISE HIM—he said some good stuff when he addressed the members of the Muscatine County Medical Society. HE SAID THE QUACKS that they would always be there, true—and that all eventually will be the medical group of the public is suffering of the good work of DRUGLESS HEALERS and the MEDS who are out of the medical associations BECAUSE THEY DO THINGS. Show me a doctor who is not a member of a medical society which he belongs to for PROTECTION, and I will show you A GOOD DOCTOR. The reason is obvious—one belongs to help commercialize on human lives—the other has confidence in his own ability to PRODUCE RESULTS and HOLD PATIENTS.

SMALL—The Chicago Musicians Union cannot boast of their latest actions regarding the boys and girls of the high school. The chain station hook-up was engaged to broadcast the inaugural ceremonies of Mayor Cermak. For the occasion the boys and girls of the Senn high school in Chicago had one opportunity of their lives they will never again receive perhaps—they were to compose the band that was to furnish the music—what would be nicer than young boys and girls spurred on in their musical work by being able to be heard all over the North American continent by this big broadcast—what is smaller than grown ups, many fathers of tots who may soon be in high school, fathers that now "along to the Chicago Musicians Union who have objected to the Senn school boys and girls broadcasting and who even served notice on the chain station heads NOT TO PERMIT THE KIDS TO BROADCAST—It is just such jealous things as that which has placed thousands of musicians on the streets looking for jobs. They have lost the MOVIES as their greatest stronghold for employment by their demands of forcing a manager to hire more musicians than the seating capacity or business could afford, and this wedge they are now using will eventually END IN RADIO STATIONS TURNING TO ELECTRICAL TRANSCRIPTIONS, thus throwing out of employment thousands more. Jealousy of grown-ups in a profession can be overlooked, BUT JEALOUSY OF CHILDREN and the fear that they will make A FEW DOLLARS is INEXCUSABLE. Such things are deplorable.

N BAD—never paid any income tax for years, made over ONE MILLION DOLLARS—government suing for $216,716 taxes—accused of fraud in conveying an estate of two holdup men in his name in a kidnapping case of performing an illegal operation on a young girl—he is Dr. Frank L. Nathanson of Chicago—haven't found out yet if he is a member of the American Medical Association.

CONVICT HELD AS SUSPECT IN WILLIAMS BATTLE

Byron Green Held at Sioux City May Be Returned Here

Suspected of being one of the two bandits who made their escape in a running gun battle with Muscatine county officers near Wilton, April 15, Byron Green, under arrest at for jail breaking, was arrested at Sioux City on Tuesday.

Sheriff Fred H. Nesper left immediately for Sioux City upon receiving word of the man's arrest and it is possible will bring him back to Muscatine county for trial.

Green, who has been sought with a companion said to be Joe Pyle, an ex-convict, since the gun battle in which they made a successful escape after more than thirty shots were exchanged along the highway and in the woods west of Wilton, has been free on a $3,000 bond pending his appeal from a sentence of two years in prison for jail breaking. This sentence was passed last week at Ida Grove, Ia. The chase followed an attempt to hold up a tourist near the junction of highways No. 38 and No. 22.

A bullet-ridden sedan which was abandoned by the two gunmen when they ran away on foot after a bullet from Sheriff Nesper's gun flattened one of the tires on the car, is still being held here by local authorities. Green, who is said to have been driver of the car, escaped in one direction, and his companion, said to be Pyle, ran from the car carrying a 40-40 rifle and a shotgun which he fired many times when closely pursued by Chief of Police Mark Taylor of Muscatine, Deputy Sheriff Jack Pace and Constable William Abbott of Wilton.

Reaching the highway after stealing a horse from a farm here, Green and Pyle, forced Mr. and Mrs. George F. Bishop who were driving along highway 32, to drive them all night to Council Bluffs. He then forced the Bishop family out of the car and drove the stolen machine to Sioux City, where the car was found abandoned.

In the car the bandits left behind, the local officers found a quantity of clothing, two guns of .45 and .38 calibre and rounds of ammunition.

41 DIE IN TRAIN WRECK IN EGYPT

LONDON.—(INS)—Forty-one persons, including 10 children were killed today when a Cairo-Alexandria Express train was wrecked and burned, according to an Exchange telegraph dispatch from Cairo.

Most of the fatalities occurred before the wreckage, the chief pitch said. Three of the deaths, however, occurred in the hospital to which the injured were rushed. Thirty-six were reported in serious condition in the hospital.

Proof of Butler's Exploit

Marines gathered around the drain leading into Fort Stevens, Ind., through which Gen. Snodgrass D. Butler left his men to the capture of the fort, winning the congressional medal of honor for his bravery. Dapson Bellmards, Italian minister to the United States, was quoted as saying he had never heard of the fort or been able to find anyone who had. He modified his statement when Butler asked for an inquiry.

First Absolute Monarch Is Guest at White House

Ruler of Siam Calls To Pay Respects to Hoover

WASHINGTON.—(INS)—The king of Siam, King Vajiravudh, arrived today for the first time in history an absolute monarch from the east who holds sway over life and death of all his subjects in Siam.

In formal occidental attire King Prajadhipok and his consort, Queen Rambai Barni, called to pay their respects to the chief executive and first lady of the world's greatest democracy.

The visit was one of state and accompanied by all the formality such an occasion required, unlike in this respect the memorable visit of King Albert of Belgium and his consort, who informally visited the Wilson sick room.

On the advice of his physician the king cancelled his schedule for this afternoon which included a motor trip to Arlington national cemetery to place a wreath on the tomb of the unknown soldier, a visit to Mount Vernon, and a talk over the radio.

Within 45 minutes after the diminutive monarch from the east and the queen had left, President and Mrs. Hoover, accompanied by the president's naval and military aides, returned the visit, motoring to the residence of Larz Anderson, one time diplomat, the temporary home of the royal visitors while here.

Aviators Planning Trip Around World

NEW YORK.—(INS)—Hugh Herndon, Jr., and Clyde Pangborn hopped off from Roosevelt field today on a flight to Porto Rico in a monoplane in which they plan later to make a round-the-world flight.

The flyers plan to stop in Florida and Cuba. They took three homing pigeons, named "Acosta," "Chamberlain," and "Lindbergh." The flyers said the homing pigeons named Lindbergh would be released 500 miles from New York.

Planning to Unite Country Churches

AMES, Ia.—(INS)—A movement is underway today to strengthen the sentiment toward uniting the denominations of various protestant churches in small rural communities. At a meeting held here yesterday tentative steps were taken toward the organization of these churches in small towns, supported by several different sects.

A proposal advanced by Dr. J. R. Hargreaves, field secretary of the home mission council, would unite the congregations in one church but each denomination would retain its identity.

Gangster's Arrest Proved Unfounded

SOUTH BEND, Ind.—(INS)—Roy Browder, alias Burgess, sought by police in connection with the murder of George L. Perry and the Linsinger-Blackledge $50,000 Garo swindle, was reported under arrest today by South Bend police in two different cities. A check-up with both cities, Louisville and Pittsburgh, however, revealed the reports false.

Bravery of Radio Operator Results In Crew's Rescue

NEW YORK.—(INS)—Shipping officials today sought to learn the name of an unidentified hero of the sea.

He was the radio operator on the Swedish tanker Castor, who stuck to his post to the last second sending radio calls for aid as the Castor was engulfed in flames yesterday 340 miles southeast of the Azores.

Reported plunging into the sea to fire-proof his clothing as far as possible, the radio operator clambered back on deck and continued to send out calls for help while the 40 members of the crew put away in life boats.

"Hurry, hurry assistance—fire raging aft; all crew safe in boats," was the final plea of the radio operator before signing off just after 4 o'clock yesterday morning.

Castor was picked up by the British freighter, which messaged an attempt would be made to tow the damaged vessel to Azores.

Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, Social Leader of Two Nations, Dies

BEAULIEU, France.—(INS)—Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, widow of the American ambassador to Britain, whose home in Purchase, New York, the king and queen of Siam are residing while in the United States, died today.

Mrs. Reid's death occurred at 4 a. m. at the Villa of her daughter, St. Jean, Cap Ferrat.

Mrs. Reid, who was born Elizabeth Mills, was Chatelaine of the American embassy in London from 1913 until her husband's death in 1915. She was universally regarded as the most distinguished American hostess in contemporary diplomatic history.

Mrs. Reid had been ill only two days, Tuesday her condition became alarming that a Paris specialist was summoned to her villa at St. Jean Cap Ferrat by airplane.

Lung congestion was believed to have been the cause of her death. Mrs. Reid was equally well known in France as in England and the United States. Of late years she had spent much of her time in the South of France while the magnificent residence she maintained in London during the period of her husband's ambassadorship was sacrificed to the needs of progress.

Mrs. Reid, a daughter of Darius Ogden Mills, prominent American financier, was married to Whitelaw Reid in 1881, while the latter was principal proprietor and editor-in-chief of the old New York Tribune, point south of Stockholm.

Bits in the Horse's Mouth

Every horse generally shakes his head when the bit is placed in his mouth because he does not like it. The good book says—(James 8:3) "Behold we put bits in the horses' mouths that they may obey us, and we turn about their whole bodies."

The racketeers and some newspapers join in purchasing the bits and pushing them in the horses' mouths. NOT TO TURN THE WHOLE BODY AROUND, but to put a few ALMIGHTY DOLLARS INTO THEIR COFFERS, by commercializing on RELIGION, and fostering some non-sensical MUSH on the public.

We have a good example of that very thing in Muscatine, and used influence and BEGGED from the merchants of their city a few dollars for the page advertisement in order to ADVERTISE THEIR CHURCH. That is NOT THE CASE. The ministers or churches DO NOT HAVE ANYTHING TO DO WITH THAT, nor do they act as a rule FAVOR IT. The scheme is this—some outsiders get an idea, a scheme they call upon all newspapers and put the deal over many times by charging double the amount for the advertising, and the racketeers—were possibly ONE HALF of the cost paid by the advertisers, and the newspaper gets the balance. These racketeers go out among the business houses and merchants and suggest HOW MUCH IT WILL BE TO BECOME ONE OF THE SPONSORS OF A FULL PAGE and how much the members of the churches will appreciate it, and that they, the business people and merchants, owe their support to the church, etc. etc.

The racket goes over, the ministers and church get the name of beggars WHEN THEY HAD NOTHING TO DO WITH IT, and the racketeers pull down about one half the cost, and on to the next town they go to PULL the same thing on someone else.

The newspapers join in with the scheme for no other reason than to get advertising revenue. Some are hesitant to charge double the amount so that it can be split 50-50 with the guy who suggests the racket, with the result that a lot of merchants who object to their names to be placed on the list, refuse to be placed on the list.

The merchants have a hard row to plow in these days of depression and every dollar they spend in advertising MUST BRING THEM BUSINESS and show upon the black side of the ledger, NOT THE RED SIDE.

Appearing in a local paper every week is a full page advertisement of CHURCHES. To the reader of a newspaper such an advertisement made one to wonder why the churches were so busy advertising.

Church heads have gone out and have been at the well when the fire started and were missing today. Friends believed their bodies were consumed by flames and that no trace of them will be found.

CENSUS SHOWS 2,851 WORK IN LOCAL PLANTS

Raw Materials Used Total Over Six Millions

Muscatine's 78 industrial establishments produce $13,845,621 worth of goods annually, according to a report of the department of commerce in Washington, D. C.

These establishments employ 2,851 persons, and pay $2,861,000 per year in wages, the report continues. This figure does not include salaries paid clerical help and executives, which will be contained in a later report.

Muscatine industrial plants use annually $6,987,978 worth of raw materials, fuel, and purchased electricity.

The above figures are for the city of Muscatine, while a report for the city and county shows a total of 84 industrial establishments, with 2,872 wage earners. The 84 plants produce articles worth $14,259,559 yearly, and use $7,211,880 worth of materials, fuel, and electrical energy.

These figures are for the year 1924 and were secured in the 1930 industrial census.

KIRKLAND PAL MAY TURN ON HIM IN TRIAL

Slayer Confident as He Goes to Court Second Time

VALPARAISO, Ind.—(INS)—Prosecutor John Underwood this afternoon said that Virgil Kirkland would be tried on all four counts of the indictment charging him with the murder of Arlene Draves. The defense had expected Kirkland to be tried only on two, each calling for a death sentence in the event of conviction. Now the defendant may again be found guilty and yet escape the electric chair.

Defense attorneys displayed extreme caution today in selection of the jury to try Kirkland a second time on the charge that he murdered his sweetheart, Arlene Draves, 18.

An inkling of the line to be followed by the attorneys fighting to save Kirkland's life was seen in the question propounded to each venireman by Oscar B. Thiel.

"If it is proven," asked the lawyer, "that Virgil Kirkland had nothing to do with the killing of Arlene Draves but that the other boys did, will you bring in a verdict of 'not guilty'?"

VALPARAISO, Ind.—(INS)—In a trial that one of the Gary city party pals might turn state's witness and testify against Virgil Kirkland, 20, was the ruling sensation today at the opening of Kirkland's second trial on a charge of murdering Arlene Draves, 18, his sweetheart.

It was also learned in Judge Grant Crumpecker's court that Kirkland has been given tests on a lie detector by the defense counsel and that the results were "satisfactory." Whether similar tests would be introduced as evidence was unknown.

In the past adversary counsel had not been allowed to meet with stenographic stenographers.

Kirkland Confident
Leon Stanford, also under indictment for the death of Arlene, was the youth who, according to rumor, may take the stand against Kirkland. His trial has been set for June 15. Besides Stanford and Kirkland, three others are accused of abducting and causing the death of the pretty girl at wild revels on November 1.

Fact that his life is in jeopardy, Kirkland, a former athlete, entered the trial with an air of apparent confidence. In the first trial he was found guilty of murder by a jury and sentenced to death.

A trial was granted on the ground that Arlene could not be buried until the trial was over.

Charges of murder by criminal attack and attempted criminal attack.

Picking Jury May Be Task
Wide publicity given to the first trial was expected to make the picking of a second jury a difficult task, attorneys for both sides hoped to complete a jury by Saturday, however. A number of additional witnesses are expected to be called by Prosecutor John Underwood.

At the outset of the new trial it was announced that Attorney Barrett O'Hara has withdrawn from the defense. His place will be filled by Ronald Oldham. Both are Chicago lawyers.

Cement Mixer Holds
Up Bridge Traffic
For Nearly an Hour
Traffic on the high bridge was held up for nearly an hour early this afternoon while the 18,000 pound cement mixer of the Central Engineering company, which is building the new road the other side of the river, was brought across the bridge.

So wide is the tread of the caterpillar tractor that the machine had to enter the bridge in the middle of the roadway, with one caterpillar on each side of the central curb. This would not permit passage of another vehicle on either side of it.

A gang of laborers was used in the work of rushing ahead of the slow-moving machine and placing large planks on the roadway so that the steel caterpillars would not injure the road planks.

The fee charged for passage of this cement mixer over the bridge was said to be $5.

Bus Tragedy Hero Is Guest OF PRESIDENT

Colorado Youth Is at White House; May
Visit Tipton

WASHINGTON.—(INS)—Bryan Untiedt, 13, hero of the blizzard-stalled school bus tragedy at Lamar, Colo., March 26-27, arrived at the White House today to become a house guest of President and Mrs. Hoover.

A White House limousine met him at union station and brought him to the main entrance of the mansion at 9:30 a. m. The uniformed doorman opened the door and he walked inside.

He wore a blue suit, a tan cap and highly polished shoes and carried a small camera.

Bryan is credited with saving the lives of 16 school children by coaxing them to stage boxing matches to keep warm when their chauffeur set out amid the snowdrifts to get the driver was frozen to death enroute, however.

Bryan made a fire with the children's schoolbooks and when these were consumed he gave most of his own clothing to the younger children who were crying because of the cold.

The children were marooned in the bus 26 hours during which time five of them were frozen to death, including Bryan's brother Orville, 9.

Bryan was in a hospital several weeks recuperating from frost bite and exposure and his grim face was pale today when he entered the White House to be an overnight guest, or probably longer.

The modest hero was taken direct to the sitting room on the second floor where he was greeted by Mrs. Hoover. She asked how he enjoyed his trip here and he replied he enjoyed it "very much" and was "glad to be here and meet her."

She told him she was glad to meet him too.

He was self-possessed; neither bashful nor too forward, those who witnessed his arrival said.

After this greeting he was taken to the cabinet room in the executive mansion where he was introduced to the president. The door was closed after he entered.

MAY VISIT TIPTON
TIPTON, Ia.—(INS)—Bryan Untiedt, the Colorado boy who nearly lost his life in a blizzard while attempting to save the lives of his schoolmates, today was the outstanding hero of Tipton school children.

In a letter to Bryan, the Tipton children invited the youthful hero to visit here promising to show him the birthplace of President Hoover.

Bryan replied, calling the Tipton youngsters "regular fellows," and promised to stop here if he had time.

Firemen Put Out
Automobile Blaze,
Make Other Runs

Firemen put out a running blaze of an automobile belonging to Otto Bausch of Wilton was damaged to the extent of approximately $75 as it was parked on Park avenue near Washington street at 7:57 o'clock this morning.

The No. 1 fire station truck responded to an alarm and extinguished the blaze with three gallons of chemical. Origin of the fire was unknown.

At 11:27 p. m. Tuesday, firemen answered a general alarm calling them to the home of Theodore Brendel, 206 Dewey avenue, where a fire had broken out among some clothing in a clothes closet.

The origin of the fire was not learned but it had been extinguished when the firemen arrived.

The No. 2 station truck was called out at 8:12 p. m. Tuesday night when a bonfire blaze threatened to reach the walls of the Seventh Day Adventist church at 506 West Sixth street. There was no damage.

At 4:15 p. m. Tuesday the trucks of No. 1 and 3 stations, were summoned to 1311 Indiana street to extinguish a fire along some weeds and brush in a dump.

"Submerged" will have the cast as follows: Maxwell Lee, Cecil Albee, Court Hawley, Robert McElroy, Clarence Baker and Robert Moore.

In "Flittermouse" will be seen Jean Gray, Muriel Garrett, Betty Johnson and Ernest Ross.

New Canning Plant
To Start in July

The Muscatine Canning company, a new concern owned and operated by C. C. Hagermann and Roy Toomey, will start operations in July.

The company will use a 40 by 132 tile building, which is now being built on the owner's farm near Muscatine on the Conestoga road.

The plant is located adjacent to a spur from the Milwaukee track adjoining the Orphans' home switch track.

Employment will be furnished to 100 persons during the height of the season, it is said.

The owners plan to handle crops from 500 acres this year. Most of it will be grown on the farm, and some contract crops will be used.

Johnson is charged with driving an automobile while intoxicated and will be arraigned May 5, according to police officials.

Antica of Mickey And Minnie Bump Up Against Court

LOS ANGELES.—(INS)—The screen capers of Mickey Mouse and his playful mate, Minnie, have been held up today, pending a final hearing on a temporary injunction restraining Pathe Exchange Inc., and Van Buren corporation from further distribution of Mickey's alleged cartoon double.

In federal court yesterday, the complainants assert among other things that the characters in the pictures did things that Mickey would not think of doing, causing Mickey fans to write in about it.

MRS. KERN DIES
AT HOME OF SON

Mrs. Henrietta Kern, 87, died at the home of her son, Charles Kern, 1111 East Second street, Tuesday night following a short illness.

Mrs. Kern, nee Henrietta Gerlinger, was born in Germany in 1843, and came to Muscatine in 1864.

Two years later she was married to Charles Kern, who died in 1902. Seven children, four of whom preceded her in death, were born to them.

After the death of her husband Mrs. Kern went to live with a daughter, Mrs. W. J. Hickey of Moline, who died Friday. For the last two years Mrs. Kern had lived with another daughter, Mrs. C. J. Cunningham of Moline. She had been visiting her son in Muscatine since Mrs. Hickey's death.

She was a member of the Evangelical church.

Besides Mrs. Kern, her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Hickey, and her son, Charles Kern, were survived by Mrs. C. J. Cunningham.

One great grandchild also survived her.

The body was taken to the residence pending the funeral arrangements of which have not been announced.

NOTES SENT TO
1403 DELINQUENT
IN TAX PAYMENTS

Delinquent tax notices were mailed out today by R. A. Van Dyke, county treasurer, to 1403 property holders of the county.

This number does not include 96 additional notices which were not mailed for the reason that the addresses of these people are not available to the treasurer—at this time.

No notices were mailed out this year regarding the head tax of 50 cents which is assessed on all male residents over 21 years of age. No exemptions are allowed in the matter of paying this tax, the treasurer announced.

LET CONTRACT FOR ROAD WORK

Snyder and Johnson
Will Raise Grade
On Highway 76

A contract for approximately 11,000 cubic yards of earth excavation for raising the grade on highway No. 76 south of West Liberty, where the new bridge is being constructed to replace the one washed out by flood waters in 1930, was awarded by the state highway commission Ames on Tuesday.

Snyder and Johnson, who are in charge of the bridge construction, will begin work on the excavation in about ten days.

Low bids totaling $538,666.90 were received by the state commission on paving, grading and bridge and culvert projects. The projects included the grading in Muscatine county, also Clinton, Osceola, and Winnebago counties, totaling $289,594.22; paving in Butler and Polk counties to cost $13,001.68; tiling in Webster county at a cost of $1,780; and culverts in Clay, Fayette, Louisa, Osceola, Winnebago and Jackson to cost $234,291.

Low bids on the paving work followed: Butler county, 0.173 miles primary No. 10 east of Dumont, to $4,942.90, on a basis of $2.39 in Polk county, 0.231 miles of primary No. 32 south of Mitchellville, to the Wright Construction company of Des Moines, at $9,058.78 on a basis of $2.61.

DOCTOR FAVORS GLAND THERAPY

4,000 Patients Prove Value of Such Treatment

SAN FRANCISCO.—(INS)—That glandular therapy appears to have a beneficial effect upon at least four diseases was the opinion advanced here today by Dr. Leo J. Stanley, San Francisco prison physician, who for the past twelve years has made a research into the effect of the implantation of glandular substances. Dr. Stanley set forth his views before the general medical section of the California Medical association in session here.

The four diseases named by Dr. Stanley in his paper were diabetes, asthma, acne, a form of skin eruption, and asthenia, or general debility.

Dr. Stanley said he reached these conclusions after treating 4,000 voluntary patients among prisoners.

His method, he stated, is to grind up the glandular substances obtained from sheep and to inject them directly in the body of the patient, where they are gradually absorbed.

"After twenty-two cases of diabetes were treated," Dr. Stanley said, "the patients felt better, gained in weight, and were able to reduce the administration of insulin. It would appear that this form of therapy was a good auxiliary treatment in the treatment of this disease."

Academic Contest
To Be Held May 5
For Local Pupils

The third annual academic contest, which will be held in Muscatine high school with the Every-Pupil contest only, will be held May 5. It was announced today at the school. The state scholarship contest will be held at Iowa City.

This contest is open to all students at the high school but is not compulsory. It is expected that nearly half of all the schools in the state will participate this year.

The first year 243 schools participated and the second year there were 361 schools entered.

E. F. Lindquist, acting director of the contest, has issued blanks and statements to the schools and announces that plans are underway to increase the interest of these contests in the schools.

It is sponsored yearly by the College of Education and the extension division of the University of Iowa.

We See It

Butler Squelched Again

Major General Smedley D. Butler has a just grievance in our estimation when he objected strenuously to being shut off the air by Station WELK, Philadelphia, when he used the word "hell" in an address which he was broadcasting. The only excuse was that the operators of the station feared the wrath of the federal authorities. The radio law declares that "no indecent, obscene nor profane language" can be used. In this particular instance General Butler was quoting a companion who said: "Oh, hell, I might as well go first" which is hardly indecent and most certainly not profane nor obscene.

Any right-thinking person will heartily support the elimination of profanity, obscenity or indecency in language over the air or any other place but the operator in Philadelphia drew the line too fine.

There is far more harm being done over the radio these days by the content of the broadcasts such as extravagant phrases used in advertising, propaganda material for this and that and many other subjects that might better be left unsaid. If those who control the stations, or the government itself, would devote more time in weeding out this useless stuff rather than to censure a man for saying "hell," it would be more to the advantage of the public.

Light Inspection Coming

State inspectors of the automotive department are making the rounds checking up on faulty lights. At Cedar Rapids the other day six state men, the sheriff and three deputies and three members of the city police force stopped hundreds of motorists and found approximately two hundred cars with incorrect lights. No arrests were made but a warning was issued in each instance and arrests and fines will follow for a second offense.

If you have been driving with one light or no light at all, which we have noted occasionally, or if you have any reason to believe the lights are not adjusted to the proper focus, better have them repaired and save yourself trouble as the inspectors will be in Muscatine sooner or later when you will be compelled to comply with the regulations.

From Financial Headquarters

Congressman Snell, chairman of the house rules committee, in a recent address, said that the time was coming when the American worker would be placed on a level with European labor because the higher standard of living in this country is artificial and cannot be maintained. If what he advocates develops he will be correct but we believe such a development is far in the future if at all unless the Wall street crowd goes crazy in their lust for power.

American bankers, as everybody knows, have been lending their surplus funds in Europe. Everything was going along nicely until the world-wide business depression came along. Now some of these foreign securities do not look so attractive. Foreign borrowers are having a hard time keeping up their payments and the American money barons are becoming worried.

But there seems to be a way out for the money interests. Let down the tariff wall, give cheap European goods a chance at the American market, allow them to sell their commodities here practically unrestricted and Europe will have plenty of money with which to pay the American bankers. In other words, flood the United States with commodities produced at a fraction of the wages paid to the American workman. What difference does it make if the American wage standard is lowered providing we save our investments, seems to be the reasoning process that is going on in some quarters. It is, of course, unthinkable, and yet it is being predicted by Congressman Snell. He says:

"For many years, on account of our natural resources and by means of the protective tariff we have artificially maintained a higher standard of living than in any other country, but we have gone the limit on the tariff. Our natural resources are being depleted and it will be necessary that the next generation govern its economic standards and living conditions more in accord with world-wide conditions than we have done in the past. In this country we have gone the limit of artificial stimulation and my prediction is that in the next few decades living conditions in America and the rest of the world are going to be much nearer the same level than they are today."

As yet there are only a few who hold that view but continual agitation will call for strenuous resistance. The best reply we have noted, although it was not so intended, is from Wall Street itself. In discussing this low wage question the Magazine of Wall Street states:

"It is argued that low wage rates will mean more jobs and that the lower cost of living will make a less cash wage equal in real pay to the higher money pay of prosperous times. On the other hand the extreme mechanization of industry in this country has given us many industries where the rate of wages is but a minor factor in labor costs."

"Continuous advancement of mechanization ought to mean higher wages and increased consumption. We should exert every effort to prevent the passing exigencies of the period from depriving the worker of a share in the profits of mechanization. Machines produce but they do not buy their own products."

Let It Alone

Drinking of synthetic methanol, an anti-freeze product containing 76 per cent wood alcohol, has caused the death of over 200 persons since last November. Dr. James F. Doran, chief of the bureau of industrial alcohol, announced recently. About the same number of deaths, due to consumption of alcohol which may have resulted from drinking methanol, are under investigation.

Wood alcohol is a poison and these anti-freeze mixtures under no circumstances can be used for beverage purposes and yet there appears to have been enough individuals willing to take a chance to cause about 400 deaths. It is best to shun intoxicating drinks of any sort. If one is so weak that he cannot resist he should at least try to discover what he is drinking. Most of the stuff is poisonous to a greater or less degree, but to drink wood alcohol mixtures is little better than suicide.

Piano lessons are to be given over the radio to millions of listeners. Maybe some advance information on this is responsible for Sir Hubert Wilkins' decision to go to the North Pole by submarine.

Our Platform for the People Is:

1. Low taxation.
2. Fewer State Commissions.
3. Universal school books.
4. Lower freight rates.
5. Return of river transportation.
6. A cleanup of some state institutions.
7. More efficiency in public offices.

Good Health Club

"OURSELVES" Reasonable of how interested and absorbed a person may be in anything by any subject, they are found to be primarily interested in themselves most of all. This is a perfectly natural trait and will be of benefit to each one providing it does not develop into a selfish self-centered character.

You may search the whole world over and you will not find anything as interesting to you as yourself. Each one has their own life to live, no one can live it for them even the many times we find instances where some are dominated by others. As a rule under this condition neither one is benefited for long. The negative or weaker person gives out or else rises up and puts the dominant one to flight.

It is much easier for others to see us as we are than it is for us to see ourselves as we are. It takes time and serious study for one to analyze themselves to the extent that they can place themselves in the other fellow's shoes and get a view from the other fellow's side of the fence.

The man who makes good is as a rule able to do this and this ability of self-analysis enables him to take account of his good and bad points, thus putting himself in possession of accurate knowledge with which he can sell himself to the best advantage, both physically and financially.

Ability is determined a whole lot by habits and they can lift one up or pull one down. Self-analysis keeps one from staying in a rut because we know what we can do and are ever on the watch for better opportunities.

The first really important part for everyone to do is to find out as early in life as possible just what that particular person is best adapted for. Find out what special line of work you would rather do than anything else. By doing this you will know what you are and where you are, and will have a pretty good idea as to where you will be later in life.

It takes judgment to make a correct analysis of this kind but others have done it and it can be done again. Study everything you can get your hands on until you find the subjects most appealing to you and then gradually concentrate on these special likings.

Whatever qualifications you may acquire or develop you must have health to make these qualifications worthwhile. We cannot all have 100 per cent health. Most of us have something or other bothering us now and then but we can keep ourselves reasonably fit. Possibly we may have some defect which cannot be wholly overcome but this must not deter us from getting something when we look at it. Possibly we can see remarkable cases of determination and successful application of ones talents and a successful overcoming of real physical handicaps. Don't ever give up. It is no disgrace to be down as long as you don't stay down. Get up as soon as possible and keep on plugging.

After a man has expressed his opinion he often wishes he had patronized a slow freight.

A married man's idea of heaven is a place where wives don't ask their husbands for money.

THE DUB'S LAMENT

They're improving the driver and the brassy, so they harder will wallop the pill. From a lie, be it sandy or grassy, up an undulant slope or downhill.

The latest built rubbicks are hollow, so, without any effort at all, from a bunker the player may follow.

The ball.

New shafts of some synthetic timber.

Which will bend like a branch still alive.

Are so supple and springsy and limber.

That they add fifty yards to the drive.

And heads, of resilient texture, will add to the impact and stress, so that one need not drive by conjecture.

Or guess.

Every club is now made for its mission.

Each is carefully balanced and tried.

And if placed from the proper position.

Will insure a complete follow-through.

The sphere will fly further and faster.

When propelled with a sure steady aim.

In short, any tyro may master the game.

But if any dear friend should present me.

With a set of these marvels some day.

I'm convinced that they wouldn't prevent me.

From playing the same clumsy way.

I should speedily sell or destroy them.

They never could give me a thrill.

Learn to Know the Right Word

By W. C. Nicholson

IN THE SAME ENVELOPE

In the same envelope come two queries.

The first one from Mrs. James J. Pow of Saluda, S. C., reads as follows:

"In the course of a recent discussion, my husband made the following remark about a merchant in our town:

"Mr. U—is a shifty man."

"I asked if 'shifty' was not the word intended here, as Mr. U—is a splendid manager. My husband replied, 'No. I mean shifty.'"

"People in our community use the word to describe persons who use various means to obtain money; viz. buying and selling eggs, butter, milk, vegetables, cows, and in this particular case, a fairly full line of merchandise. Is 'shifty' the right word here?"

The second letter is from James J. Pow, Mrs. Pow's husband:

"Is it ever correct to apply 'shifty' to the ability of a person who is able to make a livelihood under adverse circumstances though he might never be able to save or accumulate property?"

Mr. and Mrs. Pow, the most common meaning of 'shifty' is 'given to artifices, evasions, or shifts; tricky.' Another meaning is as follows: 'Abounding in expedients or resources; fertile in devices; alert.' Mrs. Pow, this latter meaning would seem to fit the merchant in question. Mr. Pow, the question of not being able to save or accumulate property is not involved.

Manhattan Days and Nights

By Walter Trumbull

The most interesting person in Louisiana, to the visiting stranger, is Governor Huey Long.

Thirty days after his election, he had repealed the tobacco tax and established free ferries at the points where he started the construction of bridges. They tried to impeach him, but he showed such strength he was never brought to trial. They enjoined him from free distribution of schoolbooks, and he beat them in the Supreme Court. The day before the date of the election, he convened the state legislature and forced the passing of a $5,000,000 bond issue. He has tried to spend $5,000,000 on a new capitol, $20,000,000 on new free bridges $90,000,000 on paved roads.

Still governor, he ran for senator against a man who had been one of the members of the Senate in Washington for well over thirty years. Long won the election by the largest majority ever rolled up in Louisiana. He has refused to take his seat in the Senate until his term as governor has expired. Every member of Congress from Louisiana is now said to be a Long man. When he finishes his term as governor, they say he will be able to name his own successor.

"If Huey Long threw his support to a new party," one of the governor's followers declared to me, "he could elect him."

Long now has captured even New Orleans. During his administration many banks in nearby states have failed, but no Louisiana bank has closed its doors. Because Long will not permit one to fail. Not long ago one was threatened with failure, but he made the big banks get together and save it. The chances are that he will brighten up the Senate. The state old place had better get ready for a few designs in orange and purple. They are betting in New Orleans that when Huey Long goes to Washington, he will make the front page of the newspapers at least once a week.

In his early twenties, Huey Long became head of the Louisiana Public Service Commission. At 30, he made a whirlwind campaign for governor. With New Orleans newspapers against him and the old guard fighting him all the way, he came close to election. They tell me he would have been elected, except for a break in luck. On election day, a torrential rain kept the country voters, where his strength lay, from the polls. At 34, he ran again for governor. In New Orleans, with the powers that were once more opposing him, he got only 17,000 out of 100,000 votes, but he carried the state by around 49,000.

Long had run on a platform of road building, free bridges, abolition of the tobacco tax and free schoolbooks. He may have been influenced

YANKS AND SENATORS BATTLE 14 INNINGS TO TIE

GAME STOPPED WITH TEAMS IN DEADLOCK, 7-7

Indians Add to Lead With 10-9 Victory Over Browns

By COPELAND C. BURG
INS Sports Writer

NEW YORK—Babe Ruth was reported so much improved today that he may be able to return to the team Sunday, permitting the New York Yankees to win another ball game. They almost won one yesterday from Washington but after 14 innings they decided to seek safety under the mantle of darkness and thereby escaped defeat for the first time in four days.

Like the rest of the Yank hurlers, Roy Sherid was unable to go to the route and went aloft in the ninth. After that none of the New Yorkers could do even a poor imitation of Ruth and the affair ended a tie, 7 to 7.

Indians Lengthen Lead
Cleveland lengthened its lead in the American circuit by defeating St. Louis 10 to 9. Myatt, a pinch hitter, driving in the run that won in the tenth. The Browns scored eight runs in the eighth.

Forty-two-year-old Clarence Mitchell pitched the Giants to a 3 to 2 win over the luckless Brooklyn Robins, allowing 11 hits but pitching superb ball when the Robins threatened.

The Phillies tumbled the Boston Braves out of first place in the National league, Jim Elliott getting credit for the 9 to 8 victory.

Burleigh Grimes sent the Cardinals into a tie with the Cubs for first place as he turned back the Pittsburgh Pirates, 8 to 2.

Bill Cissell poled the first White Sox homer of the season to down Detroit, 6 to 5. Pat Caraway went the route, chalking his second win. Other teams were idle. Scores by innings:

TONY MANNERS LOSES TO MICK

Denny Flynn of New Orleans Stops Him In 2nd Round

NEW YORK—(INS)—Tony Manners, the sensational oil refiner from Missouri, today fell among the victims in the national amateur boxing tournament at Madison Square Garden. Denny Flynn, 160-pound New Orleans boxer, knocked out Manners in the second round early this morning after the Missouri lad had taken the lead and appeared a certain victor.

A left hook to the mouth injured Manners so badly, the referee stopped the bout.

Mike Belloise, the 118-pound New York champion, knocked out Leon Shub, Washington, D. C., in the second round.

Referee Stops Scrap
Edward Siveri, a referee, almost caused a riot when he stopped the scrap between Joe Lyons, of Lancaster, Pa., and John Renda, of Boston, Mass., the best setto of the entire card because he thought Renda unable to continue after two minutes of the third round. Renda had floored Lyons several times and with so little time to go, he stood a glorious chance of getting the decision.

Adam Grayesi, Wilkesbarre, Pa., won a decision over Roy Lang, St. Louis, by taking two out of three rounds in an 126-pound skirmish. Although hurt occasionally by hard rights to the chin, Grayesi landed many stiff lefts to the body, forcing the fighting and swarming all over the St. Louisan.

Star Flite Tourney Will Commence at Musser Park Today

Play in the star flite tennis tournament will commence today at Musser park, it was announced this morning by Bernard Harper, president of the Muscatine Tennis club.

Probable lineups for the first matches will find Harper and Bob Asthalter together. Francis Weiss will play the winner, Harper said. Asthalter is a Junior College tennis star.

Play was to have begun Monday but due to damp weather and much rain it was postponed. The courts are thoroughly dried out now.

Sultan of Swat Rolls Home

Babe Ruth comes rolling home. The Babe arrives in New York from Boston, where he suffered a leg injury in a game with the Red Sox, and is glad to accept a ride in a wheel chair. Ruth hopes to be back in the game Sunday.

TENNIS COURTS WILL BE BUILT

Work to Start Thursday on 4 Courts at End of Mulberry

Ground will be broken Thursday morning for four new tennis courts at the end of Mulberry avenue, it was announced today. The courts will be built by the city.

It is possible that two of these new courts will be concrete and two clay. However, Mr. Hahn said this morning that he was sure one would be concrete anyway.

The tennis club will take a seasonal lease on two of them for its tournaments and other meets. Bernard Harper, president, told the Free Press.

Ready in a Month
The courts probably will be ready for play the middle of May, Mr. Hahn said. The fences on the property have been taken down and work will commence on the leveling Thursday. The rock beds will be laid soon afterwards.

These courts will be equipped with the standard nets and backboards with a clearance of 20 feet from the back tape to the backstop. This clearance will permit hard drives, players standing back of the tape.

There will be a special backboard for players to practice on. It is believed that this will do more to further tennis interest and good players than anything else, Mr. Harper said.

May Light Courts
It is possible that the courts will be electrically lighted for night play. If so they will be the only lighted courts in this part of the country outside of Chicago, Harper said. It will be a big feature and enable night play.

Needless to say the courts will be modern and have all the latest known advantages with perfect details of construction.

One of the advantages to be found in these proposed courts over the present ones at both Musser and Weed parks will be that they will not permit the players to face the afternoon sun.

North and South
The Musser park courts face east and west and when the sun gets low in the afternoon one or another player is forced to battle against the light of the sun. The new courts will all be built north and south. Korneman brothers will be the contractors for the courts, Hahn said. No figure of the expense of the undertaking was made public but it is said that the best of material and work will be put into them to make the best and most modern courts in Muscatine.

Ball Leagues Will Alternate on Weed, Jefferson Fields

The three kittenball leagues at the Y. M. C. A. will alternate on two fields to be used for play this year, it was decided at a special meeting of league representatives and committeemen at the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday night.

The fields to be played on are Jefferson and Weed park. Another league will play one week on one field and then switch, permitting another league to use the same grounds.

A. J. Lindley, physical director of the "Y" presided at Tuesday's meeting.

LEWIS TO GET COLD SHOULDER FROM BACKERS

Fans Peeved Because He Defeats George And Ruins Gate

By LES CONKLIN
INS Sports Writer

NEW YORK—Ed (Strangler) Lewis, the perennial wrestling champion who regained the heights by throwing Ed (Don) George in California two weeks ago, is due to receive an unpleasant surprise when he arrives here late this week, the writer learned today.

Instead of being greeted by a brass band playing "Hail, the Conquering Hero Comes," Lewis will be met by several pairs of cold shoulders and a verbal barrage of tomato cans—delivered by his own backers.

Ruins $100,000 Gate
It seems that the over-zealous Strangler, blissfully oblivious to the belief of the wisecracks that every good wrestler does what he is told, committed a grievous faux pas by throwing George. To get down to hard figures, he ruined a $100,000 gate which an outdoor match between George and Jim Londos, standard bearer of the rival wrestling group, would have drawn here this summer.

The story goes back to several weeks ago when the wrestling war got under-way in New York. George, then champion outside of New York and Pennsylvania, and Londos were hurling challenges at each other and everything was being steamed up for the big match.

Ready for Londos
When Lewis headlocked George into submission in a rough bout at Los Angeles, the boys in the back room immediately deduced that the more experienced veteran had been selected to pinch hit for the youthful Michigan collegian against Londos. "Lewis evidently had the same idea in mind," they said.

It developed today, however, that Lewis was not supposed to beat George, and that he surprised even his own backers by doing. For instead of being offered a match with Londos, the Strangler will be asked to meet George again, according to Jack Herman, local promoter associated with the Sandow-Bowser group.

"Title" Not at Stake
"We have no London of matching Lewis with Herman," said today. "Lewis will be offered a return bout with George at Ebbets field, Brooklyn. George claims his title was not at stake in the Los Angeles bout, and that he still holds the championship."

Londos is willing to meet George if the latter beats Lewis, but the Greek idol has been thrown by Lewis on numerous occasions and does not want any part of him. Ed White, the Greek's manager, was quoted yesterday as saying he would never agree to a London-Lewis match.

The fact of the matter is that Lewis, in the opinion of his own promoters, is not nearly as good a drawing card as George, the colorful collegian.

Coach Otto Vogel Of Iowa May Play With Hruska Team

The initial high school tennis practice was held Tuesday night at the Weed Park courts when seven tennis aspirants reported for workouts under the supervision of Lyman Green.

Practice sessions will be held every day this week in preparation for their meet with the Iowa City high school team Saturday.

Those reporting for the opening workout were Hubert Tipton, William Houk, Paul Schlunge, Rollie Scholton, Marvin Werner, Richard Freers, and Robert Liebbe. Coach Green is expecting many more to report for future practices.

Uncle Wilbert Robinson never gets mad with his boys; they're too funny.

Back Broken

PERCY LEE JONES
COLUMBUS, O. — Percy Lee Jones, 30 years old, former pitcher for the Chicago Cubs, St. Louis Browns, Pittsburgh, and Boston Red Sox, is in a serious condition here as the result of a fall from a window of his apartment in the Seneca building.

Up to his room mate, Linhart, another pitcher, who was with him at the time he fell, his balance while sitting in the wheelchair.

His broken legs, Jones sustained while playing for the Dallas, Tex., early season games Columbus club of the association, seemed desperate for the mainstay of the staff. He had won three games in which he was expected to fall during the season which will be marked by exceptionally close races in the dashes, it is anticipated. Orville Madison, Ames high school state champion high jumper, is also expected to easily break the existing mark for the high jump.

Among outstanding teams of the state entered are North Des Moines, Newton, Muscatine, Grant and Washington of Cedar Rapids, Ames, and Waterloo.

COAST ASKING FINAL OLYMPIC TRIAL IN WEST

Officials Claim Trip To Chicago Hard On Athletes

LOS ANGELES, Cal.—(INS)—A re-opening of the west's vigorous campaign to prevent coast athletes from going to Chicago for the national try-outs for the Olympic games team next year is scheduled to take place early next month with Los Angeles and San Francisco Olympic officials going to Chicago for a conference with Avery Brundage and other prominent A. A. U. and Olympic game heads.

Brundage and his eastern and mid-western conferees are holding out for a final try-out at Chicago for a conference with Avery Brundage and other prominent A. A. U. and Olympic game heads.

Interest in track proved tremendous there in the meet between the British empire and the United States and Brundage wants his division of the A. A. U. to receive the gate receipts that would result from the try-out even at the possible sacrifice of Olympic games points, because of the hardships such a meet would work upon coast athletes, it was pointed out.

They may compromise by holding an eastern meet at Chicago and a western try-out in San Francisco, the best at both meets to complete their training here previous to the games.

Following this conference, officials of the I. C. A. A. A. A. have called a meeting in Chicago on May 28 to arrive at a definite conclusion as to just where the 1932 intercollegiate are going to be held.

Complete Market Reports

STOCK MARKET DROP AFFECTS GRAIN PRICES

Upward Trend Stops On Advices From New York

CHICAGO (INS)—Grains closed uneven today. Wheat was 1/4c up, corn 1/4c down, rye 1/4c up, and oats 1/4c down. The market was generally lower, with wheat and corn prices for the week were 1/4c to 1/2c off.

Active wheat futures advanced 1/4c in early trading with buying strength abroad and indications the German import duty on wheat being reduced. The upward trend, however, was checked and when offerings increased, values dropped to below the previous finish. Old crop deliveries of wheat averaged steady. Liverpool ruled 1 1/4c up and Buenos Aires 3/4c to 1/2c higher. Wheat prices for the week were 1/4c to 1/2c off.

Weather conditions in the north were reported still dry, there being no precipitation in that section.

Corn ruled steady. Trade was not as easily influenced. Considerable stock covering was noted. Receipts at western points to be reported running lighter. Rather over the belt is generally favorable. Shipping demand continues moderate.

Oats and rye covered a narrow range. Estimated carlot receipts were: 46,000 bushels of wheat and 18,000 bushels of oats.

GRINNELL GETS HUGE INCREASE IN ENDOWMENT

Education Board Pays
$316,000 on Its
1920 Pledge

GRINNELL, Ia.—(Special)—Grinnell college is to have an immediate addition of $316,000 in cash to its endowment fund with prospects of $194,000 more in the next two years.

In substance this is the settlement made by the General Education Board on its pledge made in 1920 to assist Grinnell in the campaign begun then to increase the college's endowment.

Announcement of the board's action was made here by Trevor Arnett, president, and Alexander W. Armour of the General Education board who arrived from New York to make settlement with the college authorities. Their word of the board's decision came a month after the death of President J. H. T. Main, who had spent the greater portion of his efforts in the last years on the endowment campaign.

Briefly the various angles of the financial situation involved are:

The General Education board's immediate payment of $316,000 on its half a million dollar pledge is based on the fact that Grinnell has already collected $632,000 of the million dollars it started out to get.

The balance of the million is made up of real estate and unpaid pledges, and the board has given the college until December 31, 1932 to collect. As rapidly as any portion is collected the board's portion of fifty cents on each dollar.

The $632,000 collected by Grinnell was paid on President Main's pledge of $1,264,000 to the General Education board made a total of $950,000 added to the college's endowment. However, during the ten years in which the campaign was carried on, President Main also raised $712,000 with which to pay accumulated deficits, as it was a condition of the board that the college be out of debt. The grand total of money raised during the period amounts to $1,660,000.

President Main started the campaign for the purpose of increasing the general endowment of the college so that teachers salaries might be raised, and one of the terms of the settlement with the General Education board is that none of the money raised in this campaign be used for buildings or for any other purpose except investment in permanent endowment from which the income is used for support of the institution.
